

CULTURAL EXHIBITS

Presented by Arisumi Brothers Inc.
3pm to 6pm
(Located in the Multi-Purpose Room)

Presented by Island Honda

Manga and Art Contest

(2pm -3:30 pm entries received at the Manga & Art Exhibit, 4pm Judging, 5pm winners announced at exhibit area)

Art enthusiasts will showcase their entries in the Matsuri Manga and Art contest.

Manga, the Japanese nickname for magazine cartoons which are the rage in Japan, along with traditional art drawn with a “matsuri theme” will be displayed. Sponsored in part by Omochaya.

Chado Urasenke Tea Ceremony

The Way of Tea prepared by ancient standards for Japanese royalty made especially for you to partake in at the 2008 Maui Matsuri.

Ikenobu Ikebana

Delicate oriental and modern floral arrangements amidst a serene and spiritual atmosphere are created by Hideko Zwick and her students.

Peace Exhibit

Hiroshima Peace Park and World Trade Center exhibit - a tribute in hopes of World Peace.

Bonsai Display

Decades old, delicately shaped, and cared for Bonsai trees (miniature trees) will be on display. Presented by Mr. Walter Ouye (2006 Japanese Cultural Society Nihon Bunka Awardee).

Sword Display

A collection of Japanese samurai swords will be displayed by Sensei Michael Sone, a Kendo instructor at the Wailuku Hongwanji Mission. A very special sword is made by Japan's National Treasure Sword Smith, Sumitani Masamine.

Maui Sugar Plantation Display

The Plantation Camp Registry is a project of the Sugar Museum. It is a permanent collection of names of people and families who lived in the plantation camps. Anyone with sugar plantation roots is eligible to fill out a form and sign up.

Sister Cities

An informational display on the activities of the Maui County Sister Cities Foundation.

Japanese Cultural Center Display

Presented by the Japanese Cultural Society of Maui, a concept of vision and dreams that the society would like to create and make reality for the Maui community.

Maui Matsuri Special Poster Sales

Proceeds perpetuate Japanese culture and further education.